ICE invites emerging and experienced screenwriters from Western Sydney to join us for an industry 'meet and greet', an opportunity for writers to share their ideas and stories with industry professionals looking to develop stories from Western Sydney.

This intimate gathering will include Writer/Producer/Executive Producer from Cornerstone Pictures, Sarah Smith (Winter, The Killing Field, Wild Boys) and Executive Producer, John Tedesco, from Gold Marquee Films (Convict, Journeys, The Quarantine Hauntings). Both are looking to develop a four to six-hour drama series for television. Stories or ideas can be based around an event, occurrence or community situation and should reflect cultural and community values, conflict and repercussions

ICE supports emerging screenwriters and producers from Western Sydney and we encourage you to take part in this rare initiative. This your chance to get the low down. It may lead to something big!
