

2018 SBS & NITV 'Meet the Broadcasters'

As part of 'Meet the Broadcasters', SBS and NITV are offering a unique opportunity for filmmakers to participate in a speed pitching event with the decision makers from our Scripted and Unscripted teams. Pitch meetings will be 15 minutes each. Below are guidelines to what we are looking for.

The teams receiving pitches will be:

- Joseph Maxwell Head of Documentaries, Susie Jones Commissioning Editor Documentaries and Josh Martin Commissioning Editor Entertainment & Food
- Sue Masters Head of Scripted
- Cieron Cody Commissioning Editor, NITV

Unscripted

Joseph, Susie and Josh will be taking pitches for short form, single docs, and series for unscripted programs – these can be factual, food, factual entertainment or entertainment ideas series. All ideas must reflect and explore SBS's Charter of cultural diversity in Australia.

Scripted

Sue will be taking pitches for contemporary dramas that sustain 4 hours of television. We encourage ideas that focus on hot button topics that instantly generate water cooler conversation and cross platform opportunities. In addition we are looking for bold and distinctive low cost narrative web series, no longer than 10 minutes per episode for SBS On Demand. We're seeking ideas and stories that no other network would showcase. We do not commission sketch comedy or 30 minute narratives.

NITV

Cieron is looking for bold, brave storytelling from Indigenous filmmakers and Indigenous production companies. NITV is interested in pitches from emerging and established Indigenous filmmakers working in documentary, factual entertainment, online and children's programming.
